

except those issued to pay persons the money specifically levied for their use, which latter orders or warrants shall be signed by the clerk of said board; and it shall not be lawful for the said collector to make any payments whatever, except by order or warrant drawn by said commissioners and signed as hereinbefore provided for, or except by the order of the clerk of the circuit court for said county, for the payment of witnesses, jurors, talesmen, court crier and bailiffs of said court, and each order or warrant shall state the purpose for which it is given, and shall embrace but one class of expenditure.

1922, ch. 413.

154. Before any deed for the conveyance of real estate in Washington County shall be received for record by the Clerk of the Circuit Court thereof, the person offering said deed for record shall submit the same to the Clerk to the County Commissioners of said county, who shall thereupon make transfer on the county assessment books of said property to the name of the new owner or owners thereof, and as evidence of said transfer, shall stamp upon the said deed his certificate thereof, and no deed shall be received for record without said certificate. At the time of submitting the deeds to the Clerk of the County Commissioners, the person or persons offering the same shall furnish said clerk with a statement of the buildings, if any, upon the land conveyed by said deed. All Acts or parts of Acts inconsistent herewith are hereby repealed.

P. L. L., 1888, Art. 22, sec. 105. 1878, ch. 3.

155. On the first Tuesday of each month the collector shall report to the county commissioners the amount of money, principal and interest, collected, and the amount of money he has paid out on orders or warrants, drawn as hereinbefore provided, during the month just passed.

P. L. L., 1888, Art. 22, sec. 106. 1880, ch. 415. 1908, ch. 718 (p. 1035).

156. All documents, books and papers belonging to the office of the tax collector are hereby declared to be the property and records of Washington county, and at all times shall be subject to the examination of the grand jury and the Commissioners of said county.

P. L. L., 1888, Art. 22, sec. 107. 1878, ch. 3.

157. Upon the expiration of his term of office, the collector shall deposit with the clerk of the circuit court for Washington county all books and papers belonging to his office, in which the accounts of collections and disbursements are made and entered, and the county commissioners shall allow said collector the original cost of said books upon presentation of the bill of purchase thereof, properly receipted; in the purchase of said books the collector shall be limited to such books as may be actually required to faithfully comply with this section.

P. L. L., 1888, Art. 22, sec. 108. 1878, ch. 3.

158. It shall not be lawful for the said collector to retain for his own salary any part of the principal or interest of the taxes by him collected,